

Personnel Recovery

“The sum of military, diplomatic, and civil efforts to prepare for and execute the recovery and reintegration of isolated personnel.”

“Preserving the lives and well-being of U.S. military, DOD civilians, and DOD contractor personnel ...who are in danger of becoming, or already are, beleaguered, besieged, captured, detained, interned, or otherwise missing or evading capture ... is one of the highest priorities.”

- DoDD 3002.01

“These things we do that others may live ... to return with honor.”

Joint Personnel Recovery Agency

JPRA enables the Department of Defense (DOD), interagency and international partners to prevent, prepare for, and respond to isolating events. We do this as the DOD's Personnel Recovery office of primary responsibility, supporting the warfighter and maintaining a focus on the future operating environment.

February 2015

JPra is a Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff Controlled Activity. JPra reports to the Chairman through the Joint Staff J-7, Directorate for Joint Force Development.

Combatant Commands, Military Departments, and interagency partners are authorized direct liaison authority with JPra for obtaining assistance and advice for personnel recovery activities and support.

VISION

Deny our adversaries the ability to hold isolated personnel against their will.

MISSION

Teach-Support-Integrate

To enable commanders, forces and individuals to prevent, prepare for, and respond to isolating events.

CORE COMPETENCIES

Education & Training

Prepare commanders, staff, forces, and individuals to conduct joint PR activities; provide specialized individual PR/SERE training; and maintain the capability to assist other USG departments/agencies, partner nations, and others when directed.

Operational Support

Provide planning support, risk assessment, and mission analysis to support commanders globally with representation at the combatant commands; develop PR operational and intelligence support products; provide DOD program management of non-conventional assisted recovery, blood chits, and SERE psychology; and assist with reintegration of returnees and support to their families.

ENABLING FUNCTIONS

Oversight & Guidance

Assess joint/combined exercises and SERE training curriculum and standards while incorporating lessons learned into doctrine, TTPs, and guidance that improve interoperability with the interagency and multinational partners.

Analysis & Adaptation

Provide direct analytical support to warfighters through modeling and simulation and new concepts for the preparation, planning, execution, and adaptation of personnel recovery.

Technology Integration

Research, assess, develop, facilitate, and oversee joint PR technologies, experiments and TTPs.
